* Given the situation linked to the COVID19 emergency and the dispositions introduced by the "Cura Italia" ordinance last year (which provide for reimbursement of tickets already purchased for skipped shows, concerts, cultural or sporting events) we specify that, as indicated in each regulation, Borgo in Musica will also make a REFUND in case of actual impossibility for the organization to carry out one or more BiM2021 course.

Course info

The courses will be held at the premises available to the Association in S. Marco d'Alunzio (ME).

At the end of each course, a certificate of attendance will be issued to all students.

Failure to participate in the course does not give the right to any reimbursement, except for failure to take the course.

The costs of room and board are charged to the course participants, as per agreements and dedicated offers with local restaurants and bed & breakfasts.

Participants in the final concert will have nothing to claim by way of compensation also for any audio and television recordings.

All student performers are advised to bring an elegant black dress with them for the final concert.

Each student will be provided with didactic material, handouts and stationery (where proposed by the teacher).

Participation in the course implies the unconditional acceptance of these regulations.
